Use this version – the other one was converted back from a PDF and left some really goofy formatting issues that have me ripping my hair out. For your purposes it shouldn't really matter. Just FYI – we are extending the processing deadline from 15 business days after the end of the comment period to something more achievable. Maybe a month (25 business days)?

Rosemary/Kelly,

Good talking to you about your contracting conundrum. Attached is the draft PWS we spoke about. There are sections in it for both outreach and RTC. You probably only need the response to comment language.

Let me know if you have any questions or concerns.

Thx
Chris
